Art Unit: 3728

1. Claims 15-19 are objected to under 37 CFR 1.75(c), as being of improper dependent form for failing to further limit the subject matter of a previous claim. Applicant is required to cancel the claim(s), or amend the claim(s) to place the claim(s) in proper dependent form, or rewrite the claim(s) in independent form. Claims 15 and 19 appear to be independent claims drawn to a protective unit and to a display chest, respectively. Claim 1 is drawn to a packaging and display box.

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1-14 and 19 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b or e) as anticipated by or, in the alternative, under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as obvious over Chen (5,941,255), Giese et al. (5,655,553), Jimbo et al (5,005,697) or Tiramani (4,936,463). Each reference teaches a structure on which the packaging and display box of claim 1 and the display chest of claim 19 reads. The container in each reference, for example, has an insert provided with at least one cavity and at least one cell, the insert being inherently capable of receiving at least one plate and at least one screw, as functionally recited in the claims. The container in each reference can also be considered as being "fitted with compartments" as recited in claim 19. Again, each compartment appears to be inherently capable of the function of receiving a protective unit having all of the elements of claim 18, as recited in claim 19.

Claim 15 (including all of the elements of claim 1) is considered to avoid the prior art of record. A properly written claim having all of the subject matter of claim 15 as well as properly written claims dependent thereon (in this case 16-18) would be allowed.
